Producer Agreement

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

www.SagicorLifeUSA.com

PRODUCER or ENTITY (CORPORATION, LLC, etc.) NAME: _____

Sagicor Life Insurance Company (hereinafter called the "Company", "we", "our" or "us") and the Person or Entity named above (hereinafter called "Producer", "you", or "your") mutually agree to the terms of this Producer Agreement ("Agreement") as follows.

1. GENERAL AUTHORITY

1.1 AUTHORITY TO SOLICIT

The Company appoints you as a producer to solicit applications for life insurance products and annuities issued by the Company, subject to the terms and limitations in this Agreement. You shall be licensed by the state(s) in which you solicit applications for insurance for the Company. You shall solicit applications in accordance with applicable state laws and regulations, the rules and regulations of the Company, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, as such may be in effect or amended from time to time by the Company at its sole discretion and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

1.2 AUTHORITY OVER PRODUCERS

You are authorized to recruit and recommend to the Company producers to be appointed as your Sub-Producers for purposes of distribution of Company insurance products. The contract made with the Sub-producer shall become effective when executed by the Company and the Sub-producer is licensed and appointed. The Company may refuse to contract with any proposed Sub-producer and reserves the right to terminate any Sub-producer's contract without violating this Agreement.

1.3 LIMITATION OF AUTHORITY

Neither you nor any producers appointed as your Sub-Producers are authorized by or on behalf of the Company to:

- (a) waive, alter or change any provision or condition of the Company's insurance policies or certificates, producer's contracts, literature or receipts, or modify or extend the amount of time for any premium payment due the Company.
- (b) perform any act other than expressly granted herein, except as specifically authorized in writing by the Company.
- (c) bind the Company by any promise or agreement, to incur any debt, expense or liability in its name or account.
- (d) enter into any legal proceedings on behalf of or as a producer of the Company in connection with any matter pertaining to our business without prior written authorization of the Company.
- (e) enter into any contract, incur any expense or obligation, or cause or permit the insertion or distribution in any publication or otherwise, any advertising or publicity matter which in any way involves the Company without the prior written authority of the Company.
- (f) use or distribute any materials that reference Company or Company's products, or use the Company logo, without prior written consent of the Company in connection with the solicitation of applications for insurance or appointment of producers. This excludes materials supplied by the Company.

2. RELATIONSHIP

2.1 INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR

Your relationship with the Company shall be that of an independent contractor and not that of an employee. You shall be free to exercise independent judgment as to the time and manner you may perform the acts you are authorized to perform under this Agreement. You consent to receiving communications from us regarding any matters within the scope of this Agreement in any form, including, without limitation, phone solicitations, faxes, and e-mails, and you agree to using the Internet to access and read documents that we only make available through our Website. You shall pay all expenses in connection with your agency.

2.2 YOUR SUB-PRODUCERS

You also acknowledge that all producers appointed as your Sub-Producers are independent contractors of the Company. You are responsible for training and supervising such producers in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Company and requirements of the state(s) in which they are licensed and act as producers for Sagacor Life Insurance Company.

Should there be a dispute between you and another Company producer relative to this contract and specifically regarding a producer's appointment, contract level, hierarchy, or a requested transfer, the Company will have the sole right to decide and settle the dispute. This decision will be binding and conclusive on all parties.

2.3 YOUR EMPLOYEES

You are solely responsible for compensation of any persons in your employ including any producers and agree to hold the Company harmless from any damages which may be incurred as a result of your failure to compensate said individuals.

2.4 TERRITORY OR PRODUCTS

You have no exclusive territory or product distribution rights. Your territory is any state in which you are licensed and the Company is authorized to conduct business.

Without liability to you, the Company may, at its sole discretion

- (a) discontinue writing business in any territory;
- (b) discontinue and/or withdraw any product or policy form in any or all states or territories without prejudice to our right to continue use of said form in any other state or territory;
- (c) resume the issuance or use of any form in any state, territory or territories;
- (d) designate certain products to be marketed only through select persons, distribution organizations, or Company affiliates.

3. DUTIES

3.1 COLLECTION OF PREMIUM

You shall not receive or collect cash for or on behalf of the Company. You shall only receive or collect checks, drafts, or other financial instruments made payable to the Company. Neither you nor your Sub-Producers are authorized to endorse or cash checks, drafts, or other financial instruments made payable to the Company. You are authorized to collect and promptly remit to the Company the first premium on business produced by you in accordance with the Company's rules and regulations. You shall be liable to the Company for all monies received on behalf of the Company and monies payable to the Company. Any monies received on behalf of the Company will be held in trust by you and shall not be used by you for any personal or other purposes whatsoever, but shall be immediately forwarded to the Company.

3.2 DELIVERY OF POLICY

The producer shall promptly deliver issued policies in accordance with the Company's policies and procedures. The policies may be delivered only if:

- (a) the proposed insured at the time of delivery is, to the best of your knowledge and belief, in as good a condition of health and insurability as stated in the application for such policy, and
- (b) the first premium has been fully paid.

Any policy not delivered in accordance with the Company's policies and procedures shall be immediately returned to the Company. For each policy issued in the form as applied for and returned for cancellation by the applicant, or for each policy which is reissued at your request, we may require you to reimburse us for an underwriting charge.

3.3 PROFESSIONAL ERROR AND OMISSION LIABILITY.

At all times during the term of this Agreement, and at your own expense, you shall carry professional error and omission insurance in an amount of not less than $1,000,000. You shall carry this claims made coverage for a period of 180 days following expiration or termination of this Agreement or in the alternative purchase an extended claims reporting provision allowing claims arising from actions during the term of this Agreement to be reported up to 180 days after the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

4. COMMISSIONS

- 4.1 We will pay to you commissions at the rate and in accordance with the conditions set forth in the commission schedule.
- 4.2 The commission schedule may be amended by the Company at its option, which amendments shall be effective upon written notice to you. Any amendment to the commission schedule will apply only to applications written after the effective date of the amendment.
- 4.3 Commissions will be paid on premiums paid in advance of the due dates.
- 4.4 Commissions shall be payable no less than monthly as long as the minimum commission earned equals or exceeds $50. Any commission earned that remains below $50 will be paid by the Company the next commission cycle after the commission balance equals or exceeds $50. If the premium on any policy secured hereunder is not paid within ninety days from the premium due date and such policy is subsequently reinstated, you shall be entitled to further commissions only if the policy is reinstated through you.
- 4.5 You shall not be entitled to commissions on premiums waived or paid by us under the disability waiver of premium provisions or waiver of monthly deductions of any policy.
- 4.6 Should the Company, at its sole discretion, deem it appropriate at any time to rescind, cancel or non-renew a policy and/or refund any premium on which you were paid commission, then such commission shall be charged back to you and your sub-producers in the month this occurs.
- 4.7 Commissions on benefit riders, term riders, permanent and table extras, replacement policies and conversions shall be payable in accordance with Company practices at the time the coverage is issued, converted or replaced, as the case may be.
- 4.8 All commissions in this Agreement shall be reduced by the amount which the Company, pursuant to the terms of their respective commission schedules, pays directly to sub-producers recommended by you and under your supervision. The Company will make available to you no less frequently than monthly, statements showing commissions credited and other account entries within such account period.
- 4.9 The Company must be notified in writing of any disputed amounts or transactions within 90 days of the transaction date. Should a dispute arise between you and another producer over commissions, the Company will have the sole right to determine to whom such commission shall be paid and the decision shall be binding and conclusive to all parties.

5. LIABILITY

The producer is authorized to collect and promptly remit to the Company the first premium on business produced by the producer in accordance with the Company's rules and regulations. You shall be liable to the Company for all monies received on behalf of the Company and monies payable to the Company as a balance due as shown on producer's monthly statement. This includes monies paid to you or to sub-producers recruited or recommended by you. Any monies received on behalf of the Company will be held in trust by the producer and shall not be used by the producer for any personal or other purposes whatsoever, but shall be immediately forwarded to the Company. The Company reserves the right to charge interest on any amounts due hereunder up to 8 percent per year (or the maximum allowed by law whichever is less).

All accounting records maintained by you relating to our business are subject to inspection at any reasonable time by our authorized representatives. You shall make such records available to the Company on request at any time during normal business hours.

6. INDEBTEDNESS AND OFFSET

The Company, as additional security and to secure the repayment of any indebtedness due the Company under this Agreement or any other contract with the Company, shall have a first and prior lien against any compensation due you under this Agreement and against any other sums due or to become due to you from the Company for any reason. You further hereby assign and grant to the Company an interest in all compensation due or to become due and all other sums which you may have on deposit with the Company from time to time. The Company may, at any time, offset any such indebtedness against compensation due you or other monies which you may have on deposit with the Company under this Agreement or any other contract or Agreement with the Company. If the Company does elect to offset, the offset shall not constitute an election by the Company to forego any other remedies to collect the indebtedness. You agree to pay all costs of collection, including attorney fees, incurred by Company or successors it assigns in collecting any indebtedness from you. The term "Company", as used in this paragraph, shall include all companies affiliated with Sagikor Life Insurance Company.

7. REIMBURSEMENT & INDEMNIFICATION

You shall reimburse the Company and/or indemnify the Company for any loss including attorneys' fees resulting from actions by you or your sub-producers and or all costs, expenses and attorneys' fees that the Company may incur in recovering from you any property or indebtedness belonging to or due the Company. You agree to indemnify and hold the Company harmless for any claim, loss, expense, cost or liability which it may incur resulting from your breach of the terms of this Agreement or violation of any law or regulation or failure to comply with any court order or order of any governmental agency. Should any claims or lawsuits be made by any third party against you or the Company as a result of alleged wrongdoing by you, then you shall hold the Company harmless from and indemnify it for any claim, loss, expense, cost or liability which it may incur defending the action and for any settlement or judgment resulting from such action. The Company may, at its discretion, defend or settle any such claim. The terms of this provision shall survive termination, as outlined in Section 13.

8. FORFEITURE

If, at any time, you endeavor to induce producers of the Company to discontinue their contracts with the Company, or the Company's policy owners to relinquish their policies, you shall forfeit any and all commission(s) that you might otherwise have acquired under any and all contract(s), with the Company. Forfeiture under this paragraph shall not constitute an election by the Company to forego any claim it may have against you.

9. TERMINATION OF CONTRACT

9.1 This Agreement shall be automatically terminated without written notice to you by the Company in the event of

- (a) your failure to be licensed to sell;
- (b) your death; alternately, if you are an entity, upon any event legally or contractually causing a dissolution of the entity. We may continue to rely on this Agreement as existing before such dissolution until we receive formal written notice of dissolution.

9.2 This Agreement shall be terminated upon Written notice by the Company, upon its discovery that you have engaged in any of the following:

- (a) withheld or misappropriated any money or other property belonging to us;
- (b) subjected us to liability due to any act, omission or misrepresentation by you;
- (c) committed a criminal act involving theft or dishonesty;
- (d) failed to comply with the laws, rules or regulations of any federal, state, or other governmental agency or body having jurisdiction under this Agreement;
- (e) committed any fraud;
- (f) fail to conform to the rules and regulations of the Company;
- (g) fail to cooperate completely and honestly with the Company with regard to its handling and resolution of any matter that is related to your representation of the Company pursuant to this Agreement;
- (h) fail to pay any indebtedness to the Company on demand;

- (i) replace the Company's policies with another Company.
- (j) fail to attain paid first year production in any calendar year in the amount shown on the Commission Schedule in force. This requirement includes the total of all paid first year premiums for all plans as specified in the Commission Schedule, and all amendments attached thereto, paid to you and sub-producer(s) recommended by you.

Should you be terminated under Section 9.2, you shall be liable to us for such acts including liability for damages we incur by virtue of such act or acts and you will forfeit all your rights to any further payments and/or commissions under this Agreement.

9.3 This Agreement may also be terminated by either party with or without cause by giving fifteen days written notice to the other party. The right to termination under this subsection (d) is not restricted by the provisions for termination in (a) or (b) above.

9.4 Upon any termination of this Agreement, you shall immediately deliver to us all of the previously furnished materials, supplies, advertising and any other printed matter which mentions the Company.

9.5 Should the renewal commissions due you be less than $100.00 for any calendar year, the Company may discontinue payment to you at its discretion.

9.6 Except as set forth in Sections 8 and 9.2, first year and renewal commissions shall be fully vested as they accrue; renewal commissions will be vested at 100% of the renewal commission percentage shown in the commission schedule or amendment.

9.7 On termination of this Agreement, all accounts between Company and Producer shall, for the purpose of settlement, be merged into one account. If such account shows a net balance in favor of Producer, the Company shall pay such balance to Producer; but if the account shows a net balance in favor of Company, Producer shall pay such net balance to Company.

9.8 In the event of termination of this Agreement for any reason, the liability, lien, reimbursement and indemnification, and set-off provisions hereof shall continue in full force and effect beyond the termination hereof. If, subsequent to termination, any monies become due from you to the Company, and you fail to repay such monies upon due demand, all compensation due hereunder or under any other contract you may have with the Company shall be forfeited. Forfeiture under this provision shall not, in any way, prejudice the Company's right to pursue any remedies available to it to collect any monies owed by you to the Company.

11. SEVERABILITY

Any provision of this Agreement which shall prove to be invalid, void or illegal shall in no way affect, impair or invalidate any other provision contained herein, and such other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

12. NON-WAIVER

15. ARBITRATION

If any dispute or disagreement shall arise in connection with any interpretation of this agreement, its performance or non-performance, or the figures and calculations used, the parties shall make every effort to meet and settle their disputes in good faith informally. If the parties cannot agree on a written settlement within (90) ninety days after it arises, or within a longer period agreed upon by the parties, then the matter in controversy shall be settled by arbitration, in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association, and judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. If you are an individual, your Primary and Contingent Beneficiary designations (for the receipt of vested commissions) should be indicated in this Agreement. If no designations are shown, your estate will be your beneficiary. The Contingent Beneficiary will participate in the receipt of benefits only upon death of all Primary Beneficiaries prior to your death. You may change any beneficiary without his or her consent, prior to designation of any irrevocable beneficiary, by filing a written request for the change with the Company's home office. The request will not be effective until the Company sends you notice that the request has been received. Once this notice has been sent, the change will relate back to and take effect as of the date you signed the request. The Company will not be liable for any payments it makes before it acknowledges receipt of the request. A new designation of beneficiary terminates the interest of all previous beneficiaries.

However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,

- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name" line.

Limited liability company (LLC). Check the "Limited liability company" box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification ("D" for disregarded entity, "C" for corporation, "P" for partnership) in the space provided.

For a single-member LLC (including a foreign LLC with a domestic owner) that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulations section 301.7701-3, enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. Enter the LLC's name on the "Business name" line.

For an LLC classified as a partnership or a corporation, enter the LLC's name on the "Name" line and any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name" line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name" line.

Note. You are requested to check the appropriate box for your status (individual/sole proprietor, corporation, etc.).

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the business name, sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),

2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,

3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,

4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or

5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.

Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:

6. A corporation,

7. A foreign central bank of issue,

8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,

9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,

10. A real estate investment trust,

11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,

12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),

13. A financial institution,

14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or

15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The chart below shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 13. Also, a person registered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 who regularly acts as a broker
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 ¹	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 ²

¹See Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income, and its Instructions.

²However, the following payments made to a corporation (including gross proceeds paid to an attorney under section 6045(f), even if the attorney is a corporation) and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited liability company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting www.irs.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, and 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 2.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

Call the IRS at 1-800-829-1040 if you think your identity has been used inappropriately for tax purposes.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS personal property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.consumer.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT(438-4338).

Visit the IRS website at www.irs.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons who must file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, and certain other income paid to you, mortgage interest you paid, the acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA, or Archer MSA or HSA. The IRS uses the numbers for identification purposes and to help verify the accuracy of your tax return. The IRS may also provide this information to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation, and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions to carry out their tax laws. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Payers must generally withhold 28% of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to a payer. Certain penalties may also apply.
